Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008

Colortone and Gildan have taken measures to make sure that our products are compliant with the rules and reasonable testing regarding the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008. All of our products that are distributed by Alphabroder , meet the requirements set forth by the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008.
We will continue to update all requirements mandated by the Consumer Product Safety Commission.

Sincerely-

Andrew Weitz
