Broder Bros., Co. dba alphabroder™ is committed to providing safe and compliant products to our customers. This Private Brand adult products compliance statement is in response to the Consumer Products Safety Improvement Act (CPSIA) signed into law in August 2008.

This is to certify that all products referenced above are in full compliance of CPSIA rules and regulations.

For all referenced adult apparel and accessories manufactured from November 12, 2008 and forward, Broder Bros., Co. dba alphabroder™ will have all required CPSIA General Certificates of Conformity (COC) on file. Every shipment we receive from our manufacturers will be accompanied by a COC. If a COC is not required by CPSIA, we will not have a COC on file.

It is important to remember that there is inventory in our distribution centers for all the above brands that was manufactured prior to November 12, 2008. These goods are not required to have COC's and we will not have COC's on file.

We are working on a web based application that will permit our customers to access these COC's directly through our website. In the interim, requests for COC's may be made by contacting
